

VOCATIONAL QUALIFICATION IN RESTAURANT AND CATERING SERVICES ON-DEMAND TRAINING GROUPS

1. Pre-orientation training online (Finnish language & culture)

- compulsory
- before moving to Finland
- 3 months/ 300 hours
- target level A1.3 (CEFR)

2. One year Top-up programme for those with prior knowledge, training and experience in the field

Requirements:

- Certified vocational diploma
OR other kind of training with diploma or certificate
- Employer references with detailed description of work tasks showing diverse experience and ability to work in professional kitchens
- English Test (interview)
- Professional interview

Group size max. 20 participants

Tuition first in English and then progressively in Finnish, practical exams taken in Finnish.

More information:

Please see our recruiting partners here: <https://edusampo-online.fi/en/>

Holders of this qualification are able to

- plan and carry out food preparation or customer service tasks and work in sales in the catering sector
- serve Finnish and foreign customers in a customer-oriented manner
- use professional vocabulary in foreign languages, and draw on their cultural knowledge
- work in a sales-minded, customer service oriented and quality conscious manner and profitably, productively, and responsibly as well as operate in compliance with hygiene requirements, and sustainable operating practices
- work in food preparation tasks at restaurants with different business ideas or missions or in public sector units
- prepare tasty, nutritious, and wholesome food, taking special diets into account
- set out food as individual plated dishes or dishes for a large group of customers

Vocational qualification in Restaurant and Catering Services - eRequirements \(opintopolku.fi\)

Work tasks that can be executed: Work in restaurants, catering sector, staff canteens, cafés, catering companies, ships and institutional kitchens.

Edusampo services include: Tuition on campus and all learning materials, language lessons online (if applicable) and on the job learning in the workplace

Not included: Travel, accommodation, insurance, landing services, laptop